Have you seen it?

*Tomorrow you will find the solution.
And yesterday, there was Celnice, the gothic Podskali Customs House at Vyton, from the 16th century, nowadays the restaurant and museum.*

You can still buy the voucher to the event if the capacity has not been reached yet or trade the bought events with other EMAG participants.

What is your opinion?

Today, Ms. Christine Warlies from MI is here.

- How you had decided to establish EMAG? It was after discussions in Nottingham in 2006 – I organized with a team the first EMAG, for about 300 participants from 21 countries in 2008 in Cologne in Germany.
- What does Mensa mean for you? The people is like a family here.
- What do you wish for EMAG?

Many EMAGs for the future years: in Cologne, there was like a baby, and now it is like a young adult. The interest of media arises, there is both the international and the national outcome.

What does Mensa mean for you?

- I asked EMAG participants – Tomas Kubes, Pavel Vosahlik, Thierry Brunschwig, Stephan Holzer, Michael Fedrowitz, Jana Linden - and they mainly talked about meeting interesting people (and for me, it is the same). And more: Filip Rehacek prepares competitions also. Dana Rehakova said, Mensa membership supported her for studying that changed her life.
- Peter Ring from the Denmark said the people from Mensa are not like sheep, they have their opinions; he supports the international IT, SIGHT, and all age groups meetings and working in Mensa.
- Kristian Svoboda likes excursions and he prepared for EMAG participants four individual walks with the touch of music – the information can be found on the wall poster and at the help desk.
- For Michael Fackler, Mensa is a nice hobby, he compared the first EMAG with the Prague one – the transfer of knowledge could be seen, he appreciates the Czech homepage and interesting lectures.
- Some participants discover the magic Prague for the first time.

- Barry J. Evans asked another participants on the Icebreaker: they also like to meet interesting people. Elizabeth Coppock answered the question ,would you put MENSA on your CV?'. It helps to show that you can do a good job'Anja Schwarzpaul produced her MinD (Mensa in Deutschland) business card. she thinks German Mensa members seem very proud of their membership. Something we all should be. Barry asks: Have you something to say? Then please look out for my badge.

Do you know the Czech word pivo?

You are right, it is the beer – see please below :)

Czech beers from the Tour de Pub:

Most of our breweries work from the 19th century, some local ones worked in the 16th century. Typical Czech brands: Pilsner Urquell 12°, Budvar 10°, Chodovar 10°, Bakalar 10° Kozel black, Branik 10°, Ostravar 14°, Staropramen 10°, Staropramen Granat, Gambrinus 10°.
